has been confirmed for the GT-R (R35)

NUR-SPEC FINISHER

Click here for more information

- The R35 GT-R stock tail can be removed and replaced with the BLITZ Nur Spec Finisher.
- The pipe is stainless, and the tail made from Titanium with a matt black finish.
- The product is completely bolt on and does not require any modifications.
- Since there are no logos, the tail can be rotated in 90° increments.
Install the slash cut tail vertically or horizontally depending on your preference.
- The tail is 20mm longer than stock for a more aggressive look.
